

E-FILED - 11/30/10

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RAUL UVALLES,

No. C 09-5221 RMW (PR)

Plaintiff,

ORDER ADDRESSING PENDING MOTIONS

V.

FRANCISCO JACQUEZ, Warden, et al.,

Defendants.

(Docket Nos. 74, 86 and 97)

Plaintiff, proceeding pro se, filed a civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against prison officials. Before the court are plaintiff's motions to appoint counsel and extension of time to locate unserved defendants, and defendants' motion for extension of time to file their dispositive motion.

Plaintiff's motions for appointment of counsel are DENIED for want of exceptional circumstances. See Rand v. Rowland, 113 F.3d 1520, 1525 (9th Cir. 1997); see also Lassiter v. Dep't of Social Services, 452 U.S. 18, 25 (1981) (there is no constitutional right to counsel in a civil case). The issues in this case are not particularly complex and plaintiff has thus far been able to adequately present his claims. This denial is without prejudice to the court's sua sponte appointment of counsel at a future date should the circumstances of this case warrant such appointment.

Plaintiff also seeks an extension of time to locate unserved defendants. On May 11, 2010, the court ordered service of the stated cognizable claims in plaintiff's amended complaint upon

1 named defendants. On June 23, 2010, the court received ten summons which were returned
2 unexecuted. On August 17, 2010, the court received three more summons which were returned
3 unexecuted. Specifically, defendants RN C. Duncan and RN P. Crinklaw were not served because 4 the facility needed more information. Also, Correctional Officer D. DeWitt, Correctional Officer F.
5 Palaccio, Correctional Officer Stout (ISU), Sergeant Henderson, Correctional Officer J. Gonzalez,
6 Correctional Officer J. Shaw, Correctional Officer B. Carter, Correctional Officer J. Johnson, D.
7 Fabela, B. Jones and J. Hernandez were not served because more than one employee had similar
8 names or no longer at the facility.

9 On September 13, 2010, plaintiff provided additional information to allow the Marshal
10 Service to locate unserved defendants. With this information, the United States Marshal's Service
11 shall re-serve the following Pelican Bay State Prison defendants, including the additional 12 information provided by plaintiff.
